23-Feb 1967

Dear Dr. Greene:

I'm writing you about the birth of Jonas Collins.

According to a letter written by my grandmother Fermira H. Collins

He was born Nov. 24, 1865

He died according to cemetery records Oct. 18, 1936.

You say John Collins Jr. died on board ship. According to grandma's letter he died crossing the plains -

Here are her exact words. -
She is giving an account of Aquila's family. His mother died ~~on~~ Feb 21, 1873. His eldest brother is still living in England The next 4 are dead. His brother John died crossing the plains coming to Utah in 1864. He left a young wife who married again after coming here. to a man that came with them, and who lost his wife on the journey. His name was William Davis but he is now dead, but she is still living up at Provo Valley her name was Mary Goddard.

This letter was left to my Dad and he gave it to me. you are welcome to read it any time. She gives a lot of information in it.

I hope this ~~will~~ will help you, if you have any information please let me know. I'd like to be able get more information farther back.

Truly Yours,
Lemyra Hedman
